Welcome Back

Wow, what a crazy start to the year!
We are so happy to be back and getting back into a routine! I will send out the make up dates for the hot lunches we missed soon.

Due to the amount of snow days, we had to extend our Quarter. Report cards will now be coming home next Friday, February 2nd.

Enjoy this "Snow Day" Picture of Easton and Elsie!

Staff Changes

An email was sent out last week regarding the transition from Mr. Weeldreyer as our administrator to Mr. Greydanus. We cannot thank Mr. Weeldreyer enough for everything he has done for our school. He will truly be missed.

We want to welcome Mr. Jim Greydanus as our new Administrator. We are so excited to have him here as he has many years of experience inside the classroom and as an administrator.

Our Middle School Teacher, Ms. Verstraete, will be stepping out of her position at East Martin. We are thankful she was here for the first half of the year!

Mrs. Claudia Thornton will be stepping in as our 5th-8th grade Math & Science teacher. You may have already met Mrs. Thornton as she was Mrs. Russcher's Maternity leave sub in 1st & 2nd grade. Mrs. Thornton has math and science experience in middle school so we look forward to what she has prepared for the students. It is good to have her back!

We are continuously blessed for the staff and support that we have here at EMCS.

Wild Game Dinner

Just over a week away!

We are still looking for fish donations and are in need of volunteers to bring a dessert or make a wild game dish. If you have any questions or need an idea of what to make, please reach out to Jen Tuinstra at 269-779-2323. I am linking the sign up genius in the email also.

On the night of the event, we are asking that students and families wear their EMCS shirts!

Be sure to check out our event on Facebook for updates, sponsors, and donation items.
