MARCH = READING MONTH

The library is in full swing as we celebrate March's reading month! Be sure to follow along at home with the special event calendar that was sent home on Monday. Highlights include mystery readers on Tuesday afternoons, fun Friday reading time, and our whole school picture book tournament.

March 14: Reading in robes

March 21: Wild for reading
(wear any animal print, animal themed clothes, or camo)

March 28: Lights Out!

A note from the Sikma's:
We want to thank the East Martin family for their love and support and providing us the chance to serve in the library and in PE for the past 3 years. Your kids have given us some great memories as we shared books, learned new skills, and experienced many life long lessons together. We will be finishing up our fun at the end of the year and moving on to other opportunities in the fall.

Our first mystery reader this month was Nancy VandeBunte who volunteers in the library. The kids loved listening to her read!
